Brave

Kind

What do those words mean to you?

Kindness is about helping others, saying nice things, and making people feel good.

- Holding the door open
- Saying “thank you”
- Helping a friend who is sad

ASHES

Bravery is about trying new things, facing your fears, and doing the right thing even when it's hard.

- Trying something new
- Asking for help
- Speaking in front of people

BBC
two years ago,
for a different reason.

Sometimes it takes bravery to be kind (e.g., standing up for a friend)

Sometimes being brave makes you kinder to yourself (e.g., asking for help)

Challenge:

Over the next week we want you to do one kind thing and one brave thing. It could be helping someone, saying something nice, or trying something new.

Your tutor will ask you for examples!

Be Kind.
Be Brave.
